

Manfred Kirchmeyer

„live“

The Austrian rock sensation, with cover songs from the sixties to the nineties and his own material too! Full of expression, passionate and authentic.

Manfred Kirchmeyer is a rock poet and a songwriter, who tells stories in Austrian dialect in his own songs. Sometimes his songs are full of rampant power and sometimes they're quiet and laid back.

With about 100 performances a year, most of his programme consists of excellently interpreted cover songs which are also on several sample cds.

Lots of 'musical pearls' by Tom Petty, U2, Bob Dylan, Neil Young and Klangstaub from the sixties to 1990.

Manfred Kirchmeyer invites his audience on a magical journey with his passionate interpretations.

„It's not the shape, it's the expression that fascinates me, it's about how the songs feels“.
Feels great!

Biography

Born in 1968 in Salzburg, Austria

Got infected with a chronic music virus at the age of 14, had first bands and first own compositions.

As of 1989...

Co founder and board member of Salzburg Rockhouse

Singer and guitar player in Roadhouse, named best Austrian biker-rockband

Founding of the Salzburg rock and pop institute, a musical paedagogical organisation that held numerous workshops, holiday camps, band projects and courses for further education for teachers.

Own music Agency and studio, KMP Kirchmeyer Music Production.

Productions for theatre, film, advertisements and publishers.

2005-2007 about 300 concerts in Austria and Germany

Press Comments

„...he's a hero of the Salzburg rock music scene...“-Krone Zeitung

„...Manfred Kirchmeyer's expression is fascinating...“-Salzburger Nachrichten

„...the Lord of the tones...“-Krone Zeitung

„...he's not only a really good looking man; he's an excellent musician too...“-Stadt Leben